 Washington University in St. Louis

The Human Research Protection Office (HRPO) is happy to announce a new location for the SWAT! Medical Campus Office Hours. Effective immediately, office hours will be held on Fridays from 9am-1pm in the Mid Campus Center (MCC), 2nd Floor, Room 2042.

For those who are new to the institution or unfamiliar with the HRPO SWAT! Office Hours, we have staff members available to answer questions in multiple locations all throughout the week. Computers are available so that we can work with you in real time on myIRB applications.

Feel free to drop by with any questions you may have about a proposed study or current application.

Visit our SWAT! webpage for more information about the program, including schedule changes and SWAT! locations.
