

In preparation for the upcoming release of a new myIRB application on August 11th, the myIRB team will be hosting a series of demonstrations. These one hour sessions will cover the enhancements to the myIRB inbox feature, the changes to the New Project application and will include a discussion of how to transition studies from the current version of the application to the new version. The full session schedule is listed below. To register for a session, please use the HRPO Education page.

Additional details about the pending release will be forthcoming.
